

My Love

It wouldn't have mattered much
If you had said 'yes' or said 'no'
And made me know,
That nothing to each other did we owe.
But you did not.

It wouldn't have mattered much
If you had broke the ice that day
To say how you were
So very disappointed with me.
But you did not.

Now, what matters much is this
Had you but told me before
That I was dismissed long back, My Boss!,
It would have been easy for me
To search for another job!
